

From GED assistance to organizing reading material, there are a multitude of ways to be of service to adult learners.

Learning does not stop upon entering adulthood...It is just beginning

Education in our society has always been the key to forward mobility. Volunteers play a pivotal role in influencing the future of individuals looking to make positive changes in their own lives.

Adult Education Programing

The value of Adult Education is paramount to the development and betterment of our society.

- Individuals that receive high school diplomas are 3 times more likely to avoid incarceration or other detrimental occurrences.
- Persons with high school diplomas or higher earn over 400,000 dollars more in income over the duration of their careers.

X-Cel Education makes high school completion more accessible by providing flexible customized instruction at no cost in convenient community locations.

Classrooms are only one place where volunteers in Adult Education make their presence felt.

Learning Ally volunteers record books for individuals that struggle with reading traditional texts.

You can make an impact both inside & outside the Classroom

Impacting the lives of adult learners does not have to take place in a classroom setting there are a multitude of opportunities to improve the learning experiences of people continuing their education

Understand Your Importance

"Without volunteers, this particular program would never be able to effectively prepare the refugees for work given the short amount of prep time that their resettlement funding allows."
